STATEHOOD ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

Herald's Catechism, Latest Chapter of Which is Here Procured.

GOOD READING FOR EVERY ONE

Are all good people against joint statehood? No, there are some mighty good people for joint statehood.

Name some of the prominent people of Arizona who favor joint statehood.
In Maricopa county, where Governor Kibbey lives, and moves, and has his being under a considerable strain trying to keep peace among the Phoenix gangs, there are the following democrats and republicans:

Ex-Chief Justice A. C. Baker, Thos.
Armstrong, Jr., ex-Attorney General C. F. Alsworth; H. L. Latham, in Pima county, ex-Attorney General Wm.
Herring, ex-United States Marshal W.
M. Griffith, ex-Governor L. C. Hughes, J. B. Wright, Dr. Mark Rodgers, General Thomas F. Wilson, in Santa Cruz county, ex-Speaker of the House D. G. Chalmers, Colonel Allen T.
Bird, County Treasurer Con O'Keefe, in Mohave county, Hon. O. D. M.
Gaddis, Charles Connelly, in Cochise county, Messrs. Soto Bros. In Apache county, you know who they are. In the other counties of Arizona the joint statehood idea is equally prominent.

Are these all who favor joint statehood in Arizona? By no means, all. There are hundreds of others who are strongly in favor of it. The above are mentioned to show that the idea of joint-statehood is upheld by people regardless of party affiliations, and that there are good people on the side of the joint-statehood. Letters from all of the counties of the territory show that the idea has strong adherents everywhere.

Why do the anti-state feel mad because there are adherents to joint statehood? Well, some of them have had "things coming their way" so long that they naturally think things should continue to come their way.

Is it good policy to get mad because some one has different opinions to what you hold yourself? In this country, everybody has a right to think for himself. "Whom the gods would destroy, they first make mad." There is no good reason for any one to get mad over this question.

Give a little illustration of those who favor and are against the idea of joint statehood. Well, there is ex-Chief Justice Baker, who is not hunting a federal job, and he favors joint statehood; there is ex-Chief Justice Pinney, who is hunting a federal job, and he is against joint statehood.

Do the advocates of joint statehood feel mad because there are anti-state No, if a fellow's ox is about to get sore by joint state, he has a right to object and avoid the injury if he can. But if he tries to protect his ox and expose everybody else's ox to injury, there is where he is apt to feel the chilly breath. The greatest good to the greatest number, or "survival of the fittest," seems to be the true American idea.

ENTERTAINMENT IN AN ANCIENT CAPITAL

MINERS WILL HAVE UNIQUE EX-PERIENCE AT COMING CON-GRESS AT EL PASO.

El Paso, Texas, Oct. 5.—Delegates to the American Mining congress in El Paso this fall, November 14-18, will be entertained in the former capital of Mexico as a part of the program. Ciudad Juarez, the Mexican city across the Rio Grande from El Paso, separated only from this American city by the boundary stream and connected with it by two international bridges and an international electric car line, was the capital of the sister republic when Benito Juarez, the patriot president, was in flight from Maximilian's army, and the building in which he made his headquarters is still well preserved; at present it is the postoffice of Ciudad Juarez. This notable old building will be the scene of an entertainment during the congress.

Bull fights in Mexico, excursions into the copper camps of Sonora, Mexican suppers, and other characteristic Mexican features will make part of the entertainment of the congress.
From up to date El Paso with her 40,000 wide awake stirring citizens, it is but a step to the sister city across the river, but that step takes the visitor back several centuries.
There he sees houses built of mud blocks, such as the ancients on the American continent used in the prehistoric period, or the Egyptian used in the construction of their residences in the Biblical days of Moses, and Joshua; a church over 300 years old; quaint houses with walled gardens, barred windows, and castles growing on the roof; the Mexican's little herd of goats in the front yard, with the pigs, and lastly, along with other unique sights, the burro—the canary of the Rockies, the beast of burden of the section—staggering under loads of merchandise, household articles and provisions, all giving the scene an air of picturesque that is full of interest for the visitor.

TIGERS IN INDIA.

Last year 1,255 tigers, 4,370 panthers and leopards, 2,000 bears, and 2,086 wolves were killed; of snakes—the real scourge of India—no record is possible, and, unfortunately, comparatively few are destroyed. However, the tiger, the panther and the leopard are the most valuable of the big game of India and cattle life, the descent upon promising crops by deer and pigs and monkeys would be even more serious to India, and more expensive to the natives, were it not for the tiger, panther and leopard. This formidable trio of the cat family and practically police agricultural India when it pushes into the jungle, and make it possible for the poor native to exist through cultivation of his fields. So, after all, it is a question whether, speaking very broadly, tigers are not more beneficial than harmful.
Undoubtedly the depredations of the tiger are greatly exaggerated, because it is so feared that wherever it prowls invariably panics spreads widely to its discredit. On India's last year's death list, 2,649 were credited to wild beasts; and while all of these are laid up against the tiger, panthers and wolves and especially panthers, should be charged with a very considerable share. The fact is that the panther and leopard—which, except as to size, are about alike in spotted pelts and temper—are as much under estimated as the tiger is overestimated. The smaller leopard devotes itself more largely to goats and pigs and monkeys, while the panther attacks deer, goats, cattle and man, for the panther also, on occasions, becomes a "man eater," and when it does it is a fury inextinguishable. Panthers are bolder in attack, more active and more generally vicious than tigers; yet they inspire nothing like such awe among the natives. Indeed, I have seen natives rally to the defense of a dog, of which leopards are particularly fond, when the intruder been a tiger, they would have been paralyzed into inaction by very fear.—Casper Whitney in "The Trail of the Tiger," in Outing for October.

MEANING OF NATURE STUDY.

The first necessity in nature study is to become acquainted with some locality—say with a farm, says the National Magazine. It does not matter how small, how commonplace, how near the city—the nearer the better, provided there are trees and water, fences and some seclusion. If you own cabin can be in the middle of such a spot, that is ideal. For there is no make-believe when you buy a field or a piece of woods and settle down there to study. Nature respects you.
You have taken her into your confidence. She will take you into hers, and in the course of a few seasons (if you will limit the size of your garden) you will begin to discover what a multitude of interesting things come with the place that were not mentioned in the deed.

Owning a farm, of course, is not necessary. Sometimes I am quite content to be a tenant for pure and lasting joy in nature one should choose a place where one has looked upon land of your own, once you have trodden upon earth that belongs to you, and all your Sundays will be spent looking and walking there. The man in the Scriptures who bought a field and lost his interest in other pleasant things had a real case.

HAVEMEYER PARTY VISITS ALBUQUERQUE

THEY STOP OFF HERE FOR A COUPLE OF HOURS, EN ROUTE TO THE GRAND CANYON—TRAV-ELING IN STATE.

H. O. Havemeyer, the millionaire sugar king, owning immense factories in Colorado and California, with a party of friends, spent an hour or so in this city last night on his way to the Grand Canyon. Mr. Havemeyer and party were traveling in two private cars, the Edgemere and Carrizozo, attached to passenger train No. 1.
The party had a very narrow escape from death on Monday in a mine at Clippie Creek, Colo. Mr. Havemeyer and the rest of them had descended the fifth level of the mine, when all of a sudden a deafening explosion occurred right near them and they were showered with flying debris.
Fortunately, not one of them was injured, but had they been a little nearer all of them might have been killed. The explosion was caused by a "pop shot."
Among those in the party were:
Miss Adeline Havemeyer, Miss E.
Havemeyer, Miss Florence Havemeyer and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Thomas and the Misses Helen and Margaret Thomas of Boston.

A HILL TALE

A Blunt Old Colorado Miner on Postum.

A clergyman may be eloquent, may use the choicest language, dressing his earnest desire to help his fellow-men in the most elevated, chaste and beautiful language, and yet not touch the hearts of his hearers. Another man, having little education and no grace of speech whatsoever, may tell his message in the commonest everyday vernacular he is used to, and the simple faith that glows within him carries quick conviction with it. Such a man writes from the towering peaks of Colorado, preaching of Postum.

"I had drank coffee all the way until it about killed me when I concluded to try Postum, and in a short time I got relief from the terrible misery I suffered from coffee."
"When I drank coffee I bloated up so that I could not breathe at times; my nerves were so shaky that I could not hold myself still."
"But thanks to Postum I am well now and can say that I hope to remain so."

"I was very much disgusted with it the first time I tried it, but had it made stronger and boiled longer till it tasted as good as good coffee." No amount of rhetorical flourishes and literary polish could add to the convincing power of the old miner's testimony. Name given by the Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

ous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

NATIONAL WORK IN IRRIGATION

Number and Cost of Projects Approved, Some Already Begun.

TWO MILLION ACRES INVOLVED

There were few people who comprehended the vast scope of the government work which was inaugurated by the passage of the national irrigation act three years ago, and today there are many who have no knowledge of what has been accomplished by the reclamation service of the government in three short years along the line of reclaiming the arid western lands.

The general reader may form some idea of the progress of the work by noting the following facts, which are a brief summary of a statement recently issued by the reclamation service. There are now under actual construction, in eleven states and territories, the following projects, viz: Salt River, Yuma, Uncompahgre, Minidoka, Huntley, Fort Buford, North Platte, Truckee-Carson, Hondo, Belle Fleur, and Shoshone. The total amount set aside for beginning construction on the above named projects is $23,870,000, and the land irrigated under the same is estimated to be 960,000 acres. On one of these projects, the Truckee-Carson, the work has been partially completed, and water was turned on 50,000 acres last June.

The following projects have been approved by the secretary of the interior and construction on the same will soon be commenced: Klamath Falls, Malheur, Milk River, Bismarck, Buford-Trenton, Palouse, Payette-Boise, and Strawberry Valley. For the construction of these $10,200,000 have been set aside, and 949,000 acres will be irrigated under the same.

Thus it will be seen that up to date the total amount set aside for national irrigation works is $34,270,000, and that when this sum has been expended 1,909,000 acres, now desert and mostly unproductive, will be irrigated and become productive.

And this is only the beginning of the great work of national irrigation.

HERE'S THE NEXT MARK IN INSURANCE INVESTIGATION.

JACOB H. SCHIFF.

Jacob H. Schiff, one of the big four high financiers of New York, has been called to testify in the insurance scandal about the Union Pacific holding syndicate and the millions in securities sold to the Equitable by his firm while he was a member of the Equitable's finance committee.

MOUTHPIECE FOR HARD AND SOFT COAL BARONS IN STRIKE SITUATION.

F. L. ROBBINS.

Francis Le Baron Robbins, president of the Pittsburgh Coal company, is in the public eye just at present, coming from him comes frequent and emphatic statements that the coal barons will not grant the union miners' demands in the spring. His company is probably the biggest soft coal concern in the United States, but he apparently also is in close touch with the hard coal barons.

BOOSTING THE AUTOMOBILE ROUTE TO ROSWELL.

J. A. Graham, secretary of the Roswell Commercial club, returned Sunday evening from Las Vegas, Abuquerque and other points, coming home by way of Torrance, over the Roswell Automobile company's route, says the Roswell Record. He is now a booster of the automobile line and will be a strong "hunger" for this enterprise that is yet considered by some to be in the experimental stage.
He has tried the route and gives a finding favorable to the future of the company. He traveled the route with traveling salesmen who spoke in such a manner as to make him believe that the patronage of the route will increase wonderfully as the news of the existence of such a route spreads among the traveling brotherhood. The salesmen who rode with the club secretary told him that the route was the biggest advance in civilization New Mexico has had in a long time, and that they would find it very convenient on their routes over the country. Secretary Graham predicts that the auto stage will be a great success.

COURT AT PORTALES LASTED ONE DAY.

Judge William H. Pope, Clerk C. M.
Bird and Attorney J. M. Hervey returned to Roswell from Portales, where they conducted the October term of court, finishing it in one day, as had been expected. There was neither grand nor petit jury, and the only action taken was to dismiss some cases and hear a few motions. All other cases were continued until the second Monday in December, when court will be reopened there.

MERCURY WORSE THAN THE DISEASE

The effects of Mercury and Potash are worse than the effects of Contagious Blood Poison, for which these minerals are generally used. They cannot cure the disease, and in addition set up a poison of their own, producing dyspepsia, by irritating the gastric juices, salivary glands, mercurial rheumatism, and often necrosis of the bones.

Bowling Green, Ky., Mitchell House.
Gentlemen:—For over four years I suffered greatly from a severe case of Contagious Blood Poison. I went to Hot Springs, staying there four months at a big expense. I then consulted physicians, who prescribed Mercury. Notwithstanding I continued to suffer for four years. I mentioned my case to a friend who told me that S. S. S. had certainly cured him. I at once commenced its use, and in six months could find no trace of the disease whatever. This was about two years ago, and there has been no signs of return. D. M. SANDERS.

S. S. S., a remedy made from roots, herbs and barks, is the only known antidote for Contagious Blood Poison. It thoroughly and permanently eradicates the poison from the blood so that no sign is ever seen of the disease in future.
S. S. S. builds up instead of tearing down the system, as do Mercury and Potash, and when it has cured the disease every part of the body has been toned up by its purifying and tonic effects.
S. S. S. also removes any effects of the mineral treatment from the blood. We offer a reward of $1,000.00 for proof that Mercury, Potash or any other mineral Home treatment book and any medical advice will be given without charge.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

PROVE IT ANYTIME.

By the Evidence of Albuquerque People.

The daily evidence citizens right here at home supply is proof sufficient to satisfy the greatest skeptic. No better proof can be had. Here is a case. Read it:

Mrs. J. Hall, of 519 South First St., says: "One of my daughters suffered from backache for about eight months or a year. Sometimes it was so bad that she was completely prostrated for a day or so at a time. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills in our Albuquerque newspaper and thought they might help my daughter and we went to the Alvarado Pharmacy for a box.
In a remarkably short time the medicine took effect and a little longer stopped the backache. We are pleased to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

NEW MEXICO ATTORNEY WEDS TRINIDAD WOMAN

At 11 o'clock Wednesday morning, Judge J. L. Abbott, Santa Fe, N. M., and Mrs. Ida M. Patten, of Trinidad, were united in marriage by Rev.
D. C. Peters, of the Christian church, Trinidad. The couple left for Denver on their wedding tour after which they will go to Santa Fe, where they will reside. Judge Abbott was formerly a resident of Trinidad, but left that city four years ago for Santa Fe, where he has since resided. He is now United States attorney for the Pueblo Indians of New Mexico, and is quite well known in this city.

TUMORS CONQUERED

SERIOUS OPERATIONS AVOIDED

Unqualified Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the Case of Mrs. Fannie D. Fox.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy, Tumor.

The growth of a tumor is so slow that frequently its presence is not suspected until it is far advanced.

Mrs. Fannie D. Fox.

So-called "wandering pains" may come from its early stages, or the presence of danger may be made manifest by frequent menstruation, accompanied by unusual pain, from the ovaries down the groin and thighs.
If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation or displacement, don't wait for time to confirm your fears and go through the horrors of a hospital operation; secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound right away and begin its use.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., will give you her advice free of all charge if you will write her about yourself.
Your letter will be seen by women only.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham—

"I take the liberty to congratulate you on the success I have had with your wonderful medicine. About a month ago I felt badly that I submitted to a thorough examination by a physician and was told I had a tumor on the uterus and would have to undergo an operation.
Soon after I read one of your advertisements and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. After trying five bottles as directed the tumor is entirely gone. I have been examined by a physician and he says I have no signs of tumor now. It has also brought my menstrual periods once more, and I am entirely well. I am a great admirer of your medicine. F. D. Fox, 7 Chestnut Street, Bradford, Pa."

WILLING HELPERS

What's the use of a helper if he isn't willing? Willingness is the simple matter which will almost cover all the sins of service. But a classified advertisement in The Evening Citizen is a willing helper that is not only absolutely competent, but also is a willing worker. It works all the time for you. It is the best and most economical publicity in the world.

GO TO THE ALBUQUERQUE PLAN- ING MILL.

When you want any mill work done.
We don't keep you waiting. We get out your work promptly. Our motto:
"No work, no pay—we all work."

See the window display of the Rio Grande Woolen Mills at the Globe store, then ask for those $3.50 walking shirts.
